Some Boffin said 'A good Snooker Player, is the Sign of a mis-spent Youth'.
Now this list of 24 World Champions suggests, it is furthest from the Truth.
Once Joe Davis ruled the Snooker World, an incredible 15 times Champion.
On Cue came Fred Davis, Joe's Young Brother, 8 Championships he won.
Kept on One Win Each, Horace Lindrum, Terry Griffiths and John Parrott.
Equalled by Cliff Thorburn, Dennis Taylor, Joe Johnson and Graeme Dott.
Ranked as 'One-Time Sheffield Winners' are Ken Doherty and Mark Selby.
'One Crown' only, for Neil Robertson, Stuart Bingham and Shaun Murphy.
Golden Oldie John Spencer did the Treble; and Walter Donaldson won Two.
Rip-Roaring Alex Higgins and Mark Williams, also 'bagged a brace' it's true.
Eight Wins for John Pulman and Six for Ray Reardon, both some time ago.
At present John Higgins totals Four, Ronnie O'Sullivan is on Five, we know.
They trail 6 Times World Champion Steve Davis, quite an Interesting Chap.
Superb Scotsman, Stephen Hendry won it 7 Times, so to Him, I doff my Cap.
