

Acrostic - Number 29 - Tribute

Britain's Grand Lord Of Laughter KEN DODD

All Copyrights - John McEwan - The Liver Bard

Born in Liverpool, November the 8th 1927, lived all his life in Knotty Ash.
Great Comedian, Singer and Ventriloquist. We got full value for our Cash.
Laughter was his stock-in-trade, lots of Jokes, a Funny Sketch or Poem.
One thing we knew for certain, we would never catch our 'Last Bus' Home.
Last of the Great British Music Hall Stars, that Unique and Precious Band.
Proudly fulfilled his Life's Ambition, by Playing every Theatre in the Land.
Ken reached Number 1, in the British Pop Charts, when he Recorded 'Tears'.
Eleven 'Royal Command Performances' for Ken, going back many Years?
No end to this Comic's Talents, a Star of Radio and T V, so very Versatile.
An Effervescent Entertainer, with a Priceless Gift of making People Smile.
Did any other 'Solo Artist' appear 'Live on Stage' for over Seventy Years?
Or 'single-handed' spread more Happiness, dispel more Frowns or Tears?
Did anyone deserve a Knighthood more than this 'Show Business' Grafter?
Doddy, to Millions you will always be... Britain's Grand Lord Of Laughter.

more Poems on website > www.liverbard.co.uk