Our Respect and Pride - WEAR THE POPPY - For Those Who Died

All Copyrights - John McEwan - The Liver Bard

When you awoke this Morning, did you feel Elated and Grateful to be Free?
Even give a Thought for the Brave War Heroes, who Died for You and Me.
Armey, Navy, Air Force, Bomb Disposal, Home Guard, Medics and Marines.
Recruited in the Prime of Life, Men and Women. Some still in their Teens.
Such Bravery they exemplified. Laying down their Lives, to Fight in Wars.
Their Service, above the Call of Duty. All in aid of Freedom, Mine and Yours.
Humble yet Fearless, they faced the Enemy, their own survival, Secondry.
Epitomizing Loyalty and Courage, such Noble Assets are not found easily.
Today, we thankfully live in Peaceful times, the Bombers have long flown.
Prosperity and Freedom, gained by Fallen Heroes, now Warriors, unknown.
On Flanders Fields, White Crosses show, countless Victims to Remember.
Poppies signify the Loss of more Brave Souls, each Eleventh of November.
Pray our World Leaders learn their lessons and Past Conflicts do not Copy.
Young or Old, pay your full Respects. Be always Proud to Wear The Poppy.
